Much of Assassin's Creed: Odyssey is eliminating various factions of cultists throughout the game. One of these factions is called the Gods of the Aegean, and each of these battles takes place on the water, unlike the battles of other factions. It is important for the players that their character and their ships are aligned to make it a fair match. Players often struggle with the search for cultists of this faction, as the waterways are huge and endless. It may feel impossible from time to time to ever find them all, but fortunately this list serves as a guide for struggling players. Keep reading to learn everything you need to know about finding and defeating all the cultists in the faction of the Aegean Gods! 10 Complete Mission Snake's Lair This mission is part of the story and reveals the cult to the player. They will start by putting on the clothes of cultists and joining their meeting. The goal is to talk to a few and understand that this group is all about. 9 Find a cultist named Asterion The first cultist of this faction will be revealed after the completion of this mission and it can be found in the water between Skyros and Andros. This cultist's ship is at level 32, so it is recommended that the player and their ship be upgraded to at least 30. The player must board his ship and kill the cultist, but this must not be confirmed. The cultist will drop the key that will lead the players to the next on their list. 8 The Obsidian Islands Hint, which was dropped by Asterion, will tell players that they need to weaken the Obsidian Islands before they find the next cultist. This includes killing soldiers of the ruling faction, burning military supplies, looting the chests of the nation, and killing the nation's leader in order to unlock the conquest of the battle. It will take some time, but it will also help the players level up, making the next fight much easier. 7 Complete the battle for conquest to defeat Sokos When the player has weakened the nation enough, the battle of conquest will be unlocked where they will fight at sea. Sokos, the next cultist on the list, will be on his ship and the player must do everything from them to force to defeat him. When he is finally killed then the next key will be removed, which leads to the location of the next cultist. 6 Find the Octopus north of Messara This is one of the easiest cultists to find as the key that Sokos drops will lead players straight to it. Its location will be revealed in the north of Messara, and players must go out on the water to find her ship. This will be another battle for the history books as players once again board their ship and finish their lives to get the next clue. 5 Kill the leader of Messar Some may find a cultist named Melantos before they kill the Octopus, as all it takes is to kill the leader The key Octopus leaves behind tells players that this is the course of action they have to take, since the leader is the father of the next cultist. This is similar to any other murder, as the player must enter the leader's house or find him on the road and finish his life. 4 Defeat Melantos west of Messara, when the leader of Messara is disposed of, the players must head to the west coast of Messara Island. Melantos, the next cultist on the player list, will be close to shore on his ship, ready to take revenge. Players will be rewarded with a pirate hood and the next tip to help them locate the Mithlen Shark. 3 Head to the Amphitrit Palace, north of Tera, a tip that players are extracting melantos from the dead body of Melantos, about some of the ruins that can be found north of Ora Island. These ruins are also known as the Palace of Amphitrite and the hull of the ship lies among them. The player must dive into the water, find this ship, and plunder the chest that he is holding, but beware of the few sharks circling nearby. This hint will tell players where they can find a Mithlen shark to remove the following name from the player's cult list. 2 Find the Mithlen Shark Key will tell players that the Mithlene shark can be found south of The Island of Samos. He's only level 32, so by this time in a player's journey this iconic murder should be a piece of cake. The player will be given some pirate treads for their victory at sea, and this final elimination will show the location of Hydra. 1 Defeat of Hydra When the player eliminated all other members of the faction of the gods of the Aegean cult, then the location of Hydra will be revealed. The player must be at least 48 levels and have his ship fully ready to take over several high-level ships simultaneously. This cultist can be found in the bottom left corner of the map and it was made to give the players a sea worthy of a challenge. It's not an easy task, but each beat group will earn you a powerful set of armor and weapons as a reward. The gods of the Aegean are one of the most difficult groups to solve, thanks in large part to their propensity to spend their time on the waves. Each participant can be found on the ship, meaning you will need to participate in naval battles before you board them and fight them personally. Before that though, you need to find each member. In this article we'll teach you how to find member member Gods of the Aegean sea in the Odyssey of The Assassin's Creed. All the Gods of the Aegean Places If you have already hunted down the Eyes of Cosmos or Silver Vienna, you will know that the location of each member can only be accessed after completing certain quests. There are five main members, led by a sage, who you will be able to find after you have killed everyone else. Each member of the cult has one piece of legendary pirate armor set, while the sage will reward you with Gorgoneion Xiphos's legendary sword. Sail there and take the fight with him to complete the legendary pirate armor set and open your way to the sage group. Hydra © Ubisoft Unlock quest: Kill all the gods of the Aegean Sea members Level 50 Place: West of Kythera Reward: Gorgoneion Xiphos Once you have taken down the gods of the Aegean, you will be able to take on Hydra, the sage cult. Don't expect an easy fight however, as Hydra is a Level 50 opponent and, like the rest of the group, should be shot in a naval battle. This is one of the toughest battles you'll find in Assassin's Creed Odyssey, and we have yet to discover a good strategy, so all we can really do is wish you a fair wind and good luck. Once you have eliminated Hydra you will have not only the full legendary pirate armor, but also the spectacular Gorgoneion Xiphos legendary sword. If you haven't filmed Silver Vienna or Eyes Cosmos, this is a great opportunity to do so, and don't worry, you'll be spending most of your time on the ground for both of them.
